PRESS RELEASE

PHILADELPHIA – United States Attorney Patrick L. Meehan today announced the filing of a three count indictment¹ charging Jerrick Limehouse with conspiracy, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, and possession of ammunition by a convicted felon.

The indictment alleges that Limehouse, a convicted felon, entered into an illegal agreement in which Limehouse sold “crack” cocaine and purchased seven firearms. The indictment further alleges that Limehouse possessed a Ruger, model P94 .40 caliber semi-automatic handgun between November 8, 2005 and May 2, 2007 and that he possessed four rounds of ammunition on May 2, 2007.

This case is part of Project Safe Neighborhoods, a federal initiative designed to identify and prosecute firearms offenders in federal court, where the defendant is likely to receive a substantial sentence upon conviction. If convicted, Limehouse faces a maximum sentence of life imprisonment, including a mandatory 15-year period of imprisonment, five years supervised release, a $750,000 fine and a $300 special assessment.

This case was investigated by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives and the Philadelphia Police Department and is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Joseph J. Khan.
